

Preston Labour Manifesto 2022 City Council Election Easy Read

There are local elections on Thursday 5 May 2022.

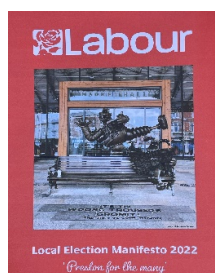

At this Councillors are elected usually from different political parties.

My name is Matthew Brown.

I am the Leader of Preston City Labour Party.

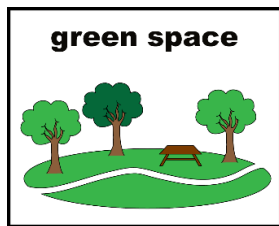

We take decisions on how local services are run.

Our aims for Preston are in this document called a Manifesto. Below are some of the aims in this document.

Help with food prices going up, such as supporting food for local communities.

Improving parks and protecting the environment

Labour will improve the Harris Museum and Art Gallery.

Labour will fund a Youth Zone facility to provide facilities such as sports hall, dance studio and multi-media suites.

Good quality affordable homes in Preston.

Fair pay for Preston. The Labour Party promote employers paying the real living wage currently £9.90 an hour.

Investing in Preston's future such as a new Cinema and restaurants in Preston City Centre called Animate.

Labour will start a North-West Mutual Bank to help lend money to small businesses and local people.

Labour will work with the Police to tackle crime.

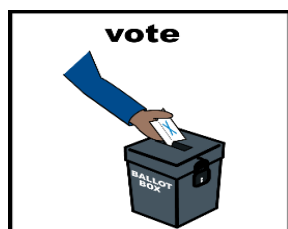

Valuing the whole community equally.

Labour promote a zero-tolerance approach to hate crime.

Deliver new 'Changing Places' facilities

Vote Labour on Thursday 5 May 2022.

Polling stations are open 7 am – 10 pm
